WHAT IS YOUR LEGACY?

THE NON-EXECUTIVE READY PROGRAM

Make your next move bold with our Non-Executive Ready Program. We will assist you in successfully transitioning to a portfolio of board appointments and will ensure you have both a compelling executive and non-executive resume, and a clearly articulated purpose.

We will help you communicate the value and impact you will bring to the boardroom. You will be able to confidently express yourself as a board member. This program will ensure you have the skills to perform at your best in those highly competitive board interview processes.

The Non-Executive Ready Program includes:

Eight tailored board/non-executive resume and interview sessions to help you prepare for the non-executive application process. This will ensure you will be presenting and interviewing at your best with a clearly defined purpose

Three hours of phone/video conference support to be used as needed for your resume or interview preparation

Uncovering an unrivaled purpose for your board portfolio, so you will stand out from the competition. This will ensure that companies and organizations understand how you, as a board member, can help change their business for the better

- Evolving your mindset from an executive leader, to a mentor and coach, who will guide executive teams to implement their business strategy
- Providing you with the confidence to engage effectively at board level
